

GRACE KAFOUI THOMAS

Grace Kafoui Thomas was born with a song in her heart in Benin West Africa. She knew by the age of 5 that she was destined for the world stage. The 8th of 9 children, she was often teased as a child because of the rich timbre that spiced her developing contralto voice.

Grace's innate warmth made her an award-winning asset in the public relations department for the Benin Sheraton Hotel. Her faith in God and sense of compassion and service to others motivated her to making a career change into nursing.

Grace's infectious personality is a constant source of inspiration to friends and family alike, her transition to radio is the natural evolution of her life's experience. Her faith in the Spirit of Love, coupled with her love of music is the driving power behind the Atlanta Caribbean Gospel Song Competition. The international flavor of her gift comes from her having lived in Paris, Toronto, New York City. She currently resides in the Atlanta area with her husband and two children.

The power is in the divine connection....Love

Happy are those who dream dreams...and are willing to pay the price to make them come true.
